San Francisco International Film Festival, No. 49
April 20 to May 4, 2006

Opening Night Gala featuring the films of Peter Greenaway:
April 19th, 2006
6pm reception, 7pm films:
The Cook, The Thief, His Wife & Her Lover followed by The Pillow Book.

SF Design Center
101 Henry Adams Street
San Francisco

The aim of the San Francisco Film Society is to foster an appreciation for film, video and other moving-image media, and to preserve and disseminate knowledge about them as powerful means both of aesthetic expression and of cultural understanding. We serve and seek to expand a multinational and multicultural community of artists and audiences through year-round exhibition, education, annotation, advocacy, encouragement of artists and celebration.