INTRODUCTION

The mathematics department of Shepherd University is concerned with the teaching and the learning of mathematics. Our purposes are to lead students to a grasp of the beauty and power of mathematical ideas; to prepare the prospective teacher to teach creatively; to furnish mathematical tools necessary for other disciplines; and to help provide vocational direction when needed.

Effective teachers are those who stimulate students to learn mathematics. Effective teachers are those who are reflective problem solvers themselves, and who create an atmosphere in which the student can become a reflective problem solver. The process continues as those students, in their own career, cause the same process to occur in their pupils.

Students should be inventive as they learn mathematics, imposing their own interpretation on what is presented to create a theory that makes sense to them. Students use new information as a basis for modification of their prior beliefs making the whole experience uniquely personal. The lecture-only method of communication must be adapted and integrated with methods that allow for group work, discussion, student presentations, and generally challenge them to take charge of their own learning. Dynamic techniques, experimentation with innovations, creation of an atmosphere in which the student comprehends the power of mathematics are the parameters of reflective problem solving as an art, science and goal.

Students seeking admission, retention, and certification in the Teacher Education Program at Shepherd University must assume personal responsibility for knowing and fulfilling all the requirements upon which their successful participation is dependent. These requirements include adherence to University-wide policies and procedures as well as those specific to the different components of Teacher Education: General Studies, Specialty Studies, and Professional Education.

The teacher education student must expect immersion in curricula which demand commitment to personal and professional development of the highest caliber. Our program is designed to ensure that the student who successfully completes it possesses the knowledge, skills and attitudes requisite for thoughtfully and effectively confronting the problems inherent in teaching.

This handbook is to acquaint the education student with the objectives and requirements of the General Mathematics through Algebra I Grade Levels 5 –9 teaching field. It also provides information about procedural matter related to entering, progressing through, and completing this program. Information is also included to assist in planning your program of study and in maintaining a record of your progress.

No claim is made for the completeness of this information and this resource is not intended to be a substitute for the Shepherd University Catalog; you should carefully study your copy of the catalog; pay close attention to the following sections: (Links are for the online catalog)

PHILOSOPHY AND THEME OF TEACHER PREPARATION
AT SHEPHERD UNIVERSITY

A conceptual framework functions as the philosophical and practical compass for achieving the goals of a teacher education program. The conceptual framework of our teacher education program provides a philosophical perspective that guides the development and implementation of previous experiences that prepare teachers for our contemporary world. The program is committed to the idea that knowledge enables one to make informed choices, to actively participate in the shaping of one’s own life and the shaping of the social, cultural, political, and economic structures of a democratic society. Education should empower all students. Teachers facilitate this empowerment. Our purpose, then, is to facilitate the development of prospective teachers who demonstrate the willingness and capacity for a pedagogy that truly empowers all students in our diverse classrooms.

The schooling context is very complex and characterized by a significant degree of ambiguity. This ambiguous complexity of the teaching context precludes a formulaic approach to teaching. Our progressive emphasis is, therefore, on developing in prospective teachers a philosophy and a set of principles that guide practice and the reflective process of problem solving. The teacher must be able to function in this complex and ambiguous context in a reflective manner: identifying problems, framing them, considering alternative solutions, and choosing and implementing courses of action. The criteria for the assessment of effective teaching must include not only curricular and pedagogical concerns but also the ethical dimensions of teaching/learning. Schooling is not done to students, it is done with students.

The theme of the Teacher Education Program at Shepherd University is TEACHER AS REFLECTIVE PROBLEM SOLVER (TARPS). To be reflective, prospective teachers need to deeply understand and be able to articulate their own definitions of teaching as well as their own learning needs. We have established a framework for the development of reflective dispositions that characterize a TEACHER AS A REFLECTIVE PROBLEM SOLVER. In order to effectively respond to the range of concerns found in the classroom, a teacher needs to be concurrently reflective across three fields of consideration: Action, Interpretation, and Critical Reflections. The teacher examines his/her Action and is concerned with the effective application of pedagogical knowledge and strategies to achieve stated educational goals for every child. This action is subject to Interpretation. Here the teacher explicates and justifies the assumptions and pre-dispositions that underlie his/her teaching/learning activity. During the process of Critical Reflection the teacher assess the adequacy of the educational goals toward which the educational experience leads and incorporates moral and ethical criteria in assessing the outcomes of teaching/learning activity.

BEGINNING TEACHERS:
PROGRAM GOALS AND STUDENT OUTCOMES

Based on discussions of desired outcomes, research of the relevant literature, and dialogue among practitioners, we agree that to be effective in a multicultural global society, a beginning teacher should possess the willingness and capacity to:

1. Ascertain and articulate personal, professionally-held philosophical and theoretical viewpoints about schooling, teaching/learning.
2. Commit to continuous, reflective self-examination for personal/professional development.
3. Function as a change agent who can influence and improve the education of 5-12 students.
4. Undertake the professional responsibility for the development of 5-12 critical mindedness, problem-solving skills, self-motivation, cooperative social interaction, and a commitment to excellent performance.
1. Develop an adequate understanding of the social and psychological conditions of learning, including cultural and linguistic differences, exceptionalities and developmental characteristics of 5-12 students.

2. Develop, articulate, and practice a constructivist, integrated, and multicultural curriculum and pedagogy that promotes and honors individual dignity and rights of 5-12 students consonant with the nature of a pluralistic and democratic society.

3. Develop learning experiences that promote acquisition of knowledge, skills, and dispositions P-12 students need to function productively and to become critical participants in a democratic, pluralist social and economic world.

4. Access current research findings regarding schooling and teaching/learning and use these findings in educational programs.

5. Develop a critical understanding of central concepts, tools of inquiry and structures of representation and their interdisciplinary connections in pedagogical content knowledge that are central to the discipline(s) she/he teaches including the use of educational multimedia technology.

6. Foster relationships between school and higher education colleagues, parents, governmental agencies, and individuals and groups in the larger community to support P-12 student’s learning and well-being.

7. Develop a coherent, integrated view of the world of theory and practice.

8. Consistently reflect on a knowledge base, dispositional orientations, and performance characteristics.

First-year teachers will not be effective unless they conducted a serious inquiry into life in classrooms. Only when that inquiry is completed and a tentative philosophy of education is formed should the traditional tasks confronting the first-year teacher be undertaken.

A MODEL OF A FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM

On the next several pages is a model of a four-year program for a non-transfer student who is enrolling at Shepherd University for the first time during the first semester of a regular academic year. This model is a suggestion only. It is quite likely that the student will need to modify it. However, it should provide the student some idea of what semester loads will be like and when particular actions should be taken.

Preferably prior to the beginning of the first year of studies students should meet with the Mathematics Education Coordinator to develop a schedule of classes for the first semester and plan for the four-year schedule. Again, within the parameters of flexibility permitted to the general studies program, the student will follow a general studies curriculum designed to meet his/her individual needs.

PROGRAM OF CORE CURRICULUM REQUIRED FOR ALL BACHELORS DEGREES EXCEPT THE REGENTS B.A.

Shepherd University has established the following Core Curriculum program which is required for all Bachelor degrees except Regents B.A. degree, which has a separate set of requirements found under that section of the Catalog. The courses listed below would usually be taken during the student’s first two years of University work and are designed to give the student a foundation in the humanities, life or physical sciences, and physical education. These courses should assist the student in developing the ability to synthesize knowledge, both past and contemporary, to develop values, attitudes and traits associates with an educated person in the modern world, and to provide the basis for a liberal arts education. A total of 42 semester hours of course work is requires as follows:
PROGRAM OF CORE CURRICULUM

*The West Virginia Core Coursework Agreement provides transfer students a measure of flexibility in satisfying core requirements. At Shepherd, a single 4-credit transfer course in Biology may be substituted for one Core Curriculum Lab Science (except where the degree program requires a specific Core Curriculum Lab Science sequence). In most cases, however, because of the sequence of our biology curriculum the student MAY NOT take another Core Curriculum Biology to complete the sequence. Instead, transfer students may complete the 8-credit requirement by taking any 4-credit NON-BIOLOGY Core Curriculum Lab Science listed in the Catalog: CHEM, ENVS, GSCI, or PHYS.

PRAXIS TESTING

Individuals who complete a teacher education program approved by the West Virginia Board of Education and leading to West Virginia licensure must meet the testing requirements of that program unless exempted by current Board policy. The testing requirements include: Praxis I: PPST and Praxis II: Subject Assessments/Specialty Area Tests and Principles of Learning and Teaching (PLT) tests.

PRAXIS REGISTRATION BULLETINS ARE AVAILABLE IN THE HALLWAY OUTSIDE KNUTTI 104. TESTS AT A GLANCE (TAAG) information is available at www.ets.org/praxis. Visit on-line to review and download TAAG. You can also purchase a Praxis study guide through the Shepherd Bookstore or Amazon.com.

When you complete your registration, you must include Shepherd University and the West Virginia Department of Education as score recipients when you complete your Registration Form. If you take the test(s) in West Virginia, the WV Department of Education automatically receives your score report.

The Pre-Professional Skills Test (PPST) [called Praxis I] may be waived provided the Candidate: a) holds a master’s degree from an accredited institution of higher education; or b) currently holds, or has held, a West Virginia Professional Teaching, Student Support Services or Administrative Certificate; or c) has attained a score of 25 on the American College Testing (ACT) program prior to November 1989 or an enhanced ACT score of 26 beginning November 1989; or d) has attained a score of 1035 on the Scholastic Achievement Test (SAT) prior to April 1995, or a re-centered SAT score of 1125 beginning April 1995 on a single administration.

SEE THE BULLETIN BOARD OUTSIDE KNUTTI 104 FOR A SAMPLE REGISTRATION FORM AND CODES.

PPST Writing (0720)        172
PPST Mathematics (0730)    172

FOR OTHER STATES, PLEASE CHECK THEIR WEBSITES.

Computerized PPST testing is available once per calendar month, up to six times in a 12-month period. See ETS.org to find out where the testing sites are located as well as how to sign up.

Currently, applicants who complete a certified program leading to teacher education in the state in which the institution is located (i.e., Shepherd University) and are certified in the State of West Virginia will be issued Maryland certification. Periodically check the Maryland Department of Education’s website for any changes.

Some states require higher scores for the PPST or no longer use the PPST. To be eligible for certification in other states, you may have to meet their testing requirements. Check requirements for other states on-line where you plan to seek certification. It is your responsibility to know what requirements are needed in other states.
A candidate completing a West Virginia approved program for the initial teaching license is required to pass a WVBE-adopted Principles of Learning and Teaching Praxis II Test that includes at least a portion of the grade levels indicated on the anticipated license.

TEACHER EDUCATION GPA REQUIREMENTS
Requirements and Definitions

Students seeking certification in education through Shepherd University are required to obtain the following Grade Point Averages:

- Educational Studies: 2.75 (includes Professional Studies and Specialty Studies course)
- Overall: 2.50

It is policy of the Professional Education Unit that these GPA’s will not be waived. Extenuating circumstances will be considered by the appropriate departments upon receipt of a written request by a student. In those cases deemed to merit further consideration, the following regulations will apply:

1. General Studies
   a. The General Studies program allows for some flexibility in the selection of courses. The student may be allowed to take additional course, in the areas where flexibility occurs, to raise the GPA. In effect, the new course selected will substitute for the course previously taken in calculating GPA.
   b. Courses will be selected jointly by the student and the Department of Education.

2. Specialty Studies
   a. With the approval of the department involved, additional courses in the teaching field may be assigned to raise a GPA.
   b. Courses will be selected by the Specialization Coordinator.

3. Professional Studies
   a. With the approval of the Department of Education, additional courses in professional education may be assigned to raise a GPA.
   b. Course will be selected by the Department of Education.

4. Overall:
   a. With the approval of the Department of Education and the appropriate teaching field department(s), additional courses may be assigned to raise a GPA.
   b. Courses will be selected jointly by the Department of Education and the appropriate teaching field Specialization Coordinator.

GPA Requirements and Definitions:
Specialty Studies: Primarily content course required for certification in different fields of study, e.g.; Multi Subjects K-6, Social Studies 5-12.

Professional Studies: Courses beginning with EDUC prefix required for certification in different field of study.

Educational Studies: Combination of Specialization and Profession Studies course required for certification in the various fields of study. We require a 2.75 GPA in Professional Studies.

General Studies: Those 42 credit hours required by Shepherd University for a degree.

Overall: All course taken for credit toward graduation, including Educational Studies, General Studies, and Electives. We require a 2.5 Overall GPA.

If more than seven (7) years has elapsed between completion of any Educational Studies (Professional and Specialty Studies) course(s) and the completion of the Teacher Education Program, a student must have the “expired” course(s) assessed by the appropriate University faculty and/or Department Chair to determine whether the course satisfies current knowledge standards. If it is determined that the course does not meet current knowledge standards, the student must retake the current course of the same name or take an equivalent course.

2. State mandated changes, if they occur, override requirement in both University Catalog and Specialization Handbooks on an implemented schedule determined by the state.

The following process will then ensue:

   a. The Director of Teacher Education will call the Professional Education Unit Council to sit in as an Appeal Panel. This Panel will be held not more than fifteen (15) and no less than ten (10) academic days after receipt of student’s written intent to appeal. The student will be immediately informed of the scheduled hearing.

   b. At least four (4) days prior to the scheduled hearing, the student must submit in written form to the Secretary of the Department of Education the basis for the appeal. The Secretary will then duplicate and send to the PEU Council members this and all other relevant documentation for review.

   c. A quorum of the PEU Council is constituted by those present but must include the Chair and three (3) or more members. All members present at the hearing have a vote except the Chair who votes only in the event of a tie. A simple majority of those present and voting by secret ballot determines the outcome of a hearing.

   d. The student must be present at the appeal to present and support the appeal and respond to questions from PEU Council membership.

   e. The student will leave the room after presenting the appeal and responding to questions. The Director of Teaching Education will inform the student in writing of the decision of the PEU Council. If the student wishes to appeal the PEU Council decision, procedures specified in the University Student Handbook must be followed.

STUDENT TEACHING

Prospective student teachers are expected to attend an informational meeting during the previous semester unless they have a class conflict. Meetings will be announced in the Shepherd University Record, a couple of weeks in advance and on the bulletin board outside Knutti 108. Students should make sincere efforts to resolve conflicts so they will be able to attend the meeting. If, however, a legitimate, unavoidable conflict exists, the student should report to the Department of Education office within five school days after the last scheduled meeting to sign up and receive printed information. Failure to follow this procedure could result in a semester’s delay in student teaching. In addition, the student is required to formally declare to his/her advisor intent to student teach no later than the first two weeks of the semester prior to anticipated student teaching semester.

In order to complete the TEP, directed teaching must be completed with the grade of “C” or better. If a student teacher’s abilities, attitude, conduct, or judgement is/are seriously flawed, she/he may be removed from student teaching, awarded a failing grade, and in most severe instances, prohibited from completing the program. In less severe instances, the student may be permitted to re-register for directed student teaching in a subsequent semester. If a student is making progress but has not reached a level of success by the end of the assignment or if unavoidable absences have prevented fulfillment of all expectations, the student teacher may receive a grade of incomplete and continue student teaching the following semester. Although a student may request this option, the decision will be made by the Chair of the Department of Education based on the advice of the supervisors, the student’s past performance, and the prospects for satisfactory completion of student teaching. It is improbable that any student will be permitted to register more than twice for directed teaching or to extend an incomplete experience more than once.

During the directed teaching semester, the student will be on campus one evening a week in EDUC 400 Student Teaching Seminar, to refine and revisit practical understandings and use of general principles of teaching; the Student Teaching Seminar will be offered concurrently with directed teaching. Students must arrange their schedule so that other activities do not interfere with any aspect of directed teaching, which includes responsibilities beyond classroom teaching. Other courses should not be scheduled for the semester in which directed teaching is occurring. If no other alternative exists, and a course must be taken during directed teaching, the student must seek advanced approval from the Chair of the Department that offers the course.

When evaluating the student teachers, the Math Education Coordinator, or designated qualified persons, will focus on the student teacher’s subject knowledge and ability to promote student learning. Since problems are an inherent part of teaching, the content supervisor will examine how the student teacher approaches and solves problems and then uses these experiences. Included here will be the student teacher’s responsiveness to constructive criticism; his/her cooperativeness; and his/her rapport with teachers and administrators with whom he/she is working. It is important for the student teacher to keep in mind that strength in one dimension does not compensate for weakness in another. After each visit, the student teaching supervisor will provide the student teacher a written evaluation.
PORTFOLIO PLAN

Professional teaching portfolios are organized collections of evidence from the students’ educational, preservice, and personal experiences that demonstrate important knowledge and skills. This evidence is used for students to review their work and make changes, to show what they have accomplished and how they can improve their work, and to serve as a tool which will allow them to market themselves effectively.

The actual portfolio can be an expandable envelope or a three-ring binder, and its should represent and reflect the individual student’s personality and work. Students are expected to be creative, yet professional, in developing their portfolios.

The Teacher Education Program at Shepherd University includes portfolio development as an integral part of students’ experiences. This supports the emphasis on Teacher as Reflective Problem Solver since students’ portfolios are developed throughout the entire period of their course work at Shepherd University. The following lists some professional education courses that include portfolio component:

EDUC 150 Seminar in Education – Here the students are introduced to the concept of portfolios and begin to create their own. They gather and include evidence of past experiences that are available.

EDUC 200 Foundations of Education – The students continue to build their portfolios. They include class assignments, such as papers regarding their philosophy of education.

EDUC 320 Social and Psychological Conditions of Learning – Students continue to add their portfolios. They include class assignments and examples from their field experiences.

EDUC 370/435 Creating Learning Environments; Special Methods Practicum – By this time in the students’ experiences they are immersed in field experiences. They should include examples of units they have developed and taught, bulletin boards they have created, philosophy of education papers, and research papers pertaining to educational practices.

EDUC 400/450 Student Teaching and Student Teaching Seminar – The students continue to add to their portfolios. At this point they should have several pieces of evidence from their teaching experiences such as videos, teaching units, photos of learning centers, bulletin boards, recommendations, etc.

Throughout all courses thereafter, students should add items, if any, such as those listed below to their portfolios:

- Resume
- State Certification documentation
- Letters of recommendation
- Official transcripts
- National Teacher Exam results
- PPST results
- Evidence of involvement in Extracurricular activities
- Student teaching evaluation from The University supervisor
- Evidence of field experience work
- Documentation of honors and awards
- Examples of original lesson plans
- An original test
- A teaching unit
- A case study of a student
- A Learning activity packet
- Examples of original/creative work
- Student teaching evaluations from cooperating teachers.
According to Policy and Procedures of the Shepherd University Teacher Education program, students must have made satisfactory progress in portfolio development to obtain admission to the Teacher Education Program (TEP) at Review Juncture 1; and to be eligible for student teaching at Review Juncture 2. The students’ portfolios are to be assessed by the students’ advisors on a periodic basis using the Portfolio Assessment Form.
